

BIOGRAPHICAL SUMMARY OF SERENA J. TYSON

Serena Tyson is a singer/songwriter who has been singing since the tender age of 3 and writing since 12 years old. Growing up as a PK (preacher's kid), she learned at a young age, of the power of God that rests on her life. Serena's music exudes personal triumphs over life's experiences and circumstances, and projects a message of hope to all. Serena sings under the anointing and invokes the presence of God through worship and praise. Her melodic tones and powerful vocals accompanied by God's anointing, shifts atmospheres to make them conducive for God to enter into the hearts and minds of his people.

Serena has had the privilege to perform with the likes of artists such as Hezekiah Walker, Lenny Kravitz, Yolanda Adams, Tamar Braxton, has opened up for Michelle Williams and Chrisette Michele, and has also has worked with world-renowned music producer Stanley Brown. Emerging out of a global pandemic, on the National Day of Prayer, Serena recently released her latest single entitled "Daily Prayer" featuring Chrisette Michele.

Serena has been happily married to her husband Joshua Tyson for 10 years (this May). God has blessed them with two handsome boys: Ezekiel (age 9) and Jonah (age 7), as well as their princess: Serenity (age 4).

God has afforded Serena the opportunity to obtain a Bachelor's Degree of Psychology as well as a Master's Degree of Educational Counseling that she effectively utilizes within her career as a High School Guidance Counselor. She plans to pursue her Doctorate Degree in the near future. Together, Joshua and Serena have answered God's call to plant and pastor a new ministry, Made Whole Nation in Nassau County, Long Island.

As Serena gracefully balances the role of a wife, a mother, an artist, an educator, and a new co-pastor, she understands that God has gifted her in a plethora of capacities, not just to keep them to herself, but to share with the world and compel others to their freedom in Christ.
